SENATE GROUP BACKS N. L. R. B. Nominee

By BERT ABBOTT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The Senate Labor Committee today approved the nomination of C. Remus_today to be a member of the National Labor Relations Board.

The committee acted unanimously, and the full Senate is expected to give confirmation without delay.

EXTRA

The committee also recommended appointment of two other members of the board: Edward-fashioned, a lawyer, and Herbert E. Pfeiffer, an economist.

V. F. W. in Norwalk Is Turning in Reds

By DAVID ANDERSON

NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 26—The V. F. W.

Charities of Norwalk and South Norw-walk have been warning for some time that a wave of anti-communism in the city was beginning to turn in to the organization.

On Wednesday night, the V. F. W.

Charities held a meeting at the V. F. W.

hall to discuss the situation.

Mr. Thomson, who had been the head of the organization for several years, announced that the V. F. W. had begun a drive to get the word out that the organization was not a Communist organization.

LATE CITY EDITION

New York, New York, January 27, 1954

FIVE CENTS

ALLIES APPROVE MOLOTOV AGENDA TO SPEED PARLEY

Ago to discuss Communist

China, but U. S. Rear Out

World Talk With Peiping

DULLIES FOR FRESH START.

Secretary regrets Russian

Criticism—Cites the Need for European Army

Took the Dullies aproach at the White House, and was given a very friendly reception.

TEN ON TURF:

By CLIFTON DANIEL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26--Horse racing at the tracks around the nation is expected to be a profitable business this year.

PLANT TO SIDETRACK BROKER PROPOSAL GROWING IN SATE

By WILLIAM R. WARDEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The House

Commerce Committee today passed a resolution recommending that the Government take over the in-plant facilities of the Brookmans, a prominent insurance company.

**********

MADRID STUDENTS TURN ON REBO

By CAMILO L. CAMPANALE

Madrid, Jan. 26—The Madrid students have announced that they will not consider the United States' proposal for a cultural exchange program.

DEMOCRATS FACE OPPONENTS

By M. L. P. SHERMAN

Washington, Jan. 26—The Democratic Party faces a number of problems in the upcoming election.

BILLOW TEMPER SPAIN BASE STAND

By MALCOLM W. STODDARD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—President

Truman today rejected the Spanish Government's

request for the extension of the United States'

base at

Madrid.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The President's

military

advisers have approved the deployment

of additional forces in Europe to counter the possible Commun ist

threat.

The decision was reached after

the advisers

reviewed the intelligence

information regarding

the

Soviet

Union's

military

buildup in Europe.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The President has approached the

United

States' allies

in

Europe

to discuss

the possibility of improving

relations between

the

United

States

and these countries.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The President today

announced

that he will not sign

the

new defense

bill

because it

fails

to include

spending

for

the

new atomic batteries.

The

President

said

that he will not

sign

the

bill

because

it

fails

to include

spending

for

the

new atomic

batteries.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The President today

announced

that he will not

sign

the

new

defense

bill

because

it

fails

to include

spending

for

the

new atomic

batteries.

The

President

said

that he will not

sign

the

bill

because

it

fails

to include

spending

for

the

new atomic

batteries.
ARAB ARMS SCORED IN LEBANON After four weeks of indecision, President Eisenhower's recently appointed Peacekeeping Mission to the Lebanon has scored important successes in the fighting which has resulted from the recent election in that country. The mission was invited by the United Nations Security Council to intervene in the Lebanon after the election of a new government which was strongly opposed by the United States and other Western countries. The mission's task was to ensure political stability and to protect the peacekeeping forces from attack.

TURKS' PRESIDENT ARRIVES FOR VISIT
Continued from Page 3 Turkey's President, Sabanci, arrived in New York on Sunday afternoon for a five-day visit. He is scheduled to meet with President Eisenhower and other American political leaders during his stay. Sabanci's visit is expected to focus on increasing trade and diplomatic relations between Turkey and the United States.

NEW "FIESTA" FARES
To lands where vacation dollars go far!

HEAVY» • $110
MIAMI • $130
BAHAMA • $150
CARIBBEAN • $165
BAHAMAS • $180
TRINIDAD • $190
GUYANA • $210
PARAGUAY • $225
URUGUAY • $240
BRAZIL • $260
ARGENTINA • $280
CHILE • $300
PERU • $320
ECUADOR • $340
COLOMBIA • $360
VENEZUELA • $380
BOLIVIA • $400
PARAGUAY • $420
URUGUAY • $440
ARGENTINA • $460
BRAZIL • $480
CHILE • $500
PERU • $520
ECUADOR • $540
COLOMBIA • $560
VENEZUELA • $580
BOLIVIA • $600

Call your Travel Agent or STILLWELL 6-0600

THE GUIANAS

WINDWARD IS.

LEEWARD-IS.

WINDWARD IS.

LEEWARD-IS.

650 MADISON AVE. AT 50TH ST. **
212 MADISON AT 50TH ST., (ON W 50TH STREET) 225 MADISON AT 6TH ST., B B, 22, B, B.
228 MADISON AT 8TH ST., NEW YORK PHONE: PASTA 3-0180, W WHITE PLAINS, WHITE PLAINS 0-050

THE NEW YORK TIMES, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1954.